

NCCSC ANNUAL CONFERENCE

"Go Light Your World!"

ON THE BEACH.....

Don't let the Sun Come Up

Without YOU

Don't let the sun come up or the 23rd annual NC Child Support Council and Attorney's Conference on Sept. 13-15th, 2006 at the Sheraton Oceanfront Hotel in Atlantic Beach, NC start without you. Even though the pre-registration deadline is August 11th, you can still register at the door on Wednesday or Thursday. Although, I don't think you want to miss either day. The three-day event is packed with exciting events, fun foods, and action packed workshops. Don't be surprised if you meet face to face with a Pirate, or you go on a treasure hunt for great prizes. So pack your swords, patches and hooks, and costume for the event on Wed. as the Grand Ballroom becomes a pirate ship and you are the mates. Don't miss hours of fun, laughter and sharing at the Pirate's Cove Seaside Bar and Snack Shack (better known as the Hospitality Suite), where there will be refreshing beverages of all kinds, PIZZA and snacks.

Prepare to Sail the swaying tides of the child support world as the Business Session opens up on Thurs. Be ready to raise your banners and represent the cause as Judges will be watching and picking this year's banner winners and your vote is needed for the Board nominations. You must be present before the gavel sounds to be eligible for the best door prizes. A chair awaits you in an array of shining workshops. Hey, lunch is on us on Thurs. and it's on the beach or by the pool, you decide.

I extend this personal invitation to join me for dinner at the President's Reception Thurs. evening when the sun begins to set, but the beach party begins, and then.....

Then it's party time! We'll dance to "The Maxx" again this year; so don't forget your shagging shoes, or your twisting shoes, or your disco shoes, or no shoes, if you choose.

I can hardly wait! Friday morning, we'll enjoy the sunrise and more fabulous workshops, and the closing session where the ultimate door prizes will be awarded along with the raffle drawings. A photo booth will be set up at various times by the pool and on the beach so that you can enjoy a souvenir from the conference.

Don't forget- NO BUSINESS CLOTHES! All events and sessions are casual beach attire, so bring your shorts and t's, sun dresses, capris, tanks, and flip flops, and don't get caught out of this dress code or you may have to walk the plank! If this 3-day excursion doesn't light your world, your wick is burnt up! Let's burn the candle at both ends and "Go Light Your World"! See ya there!

Wishes for sunny days and sand between your toes

Angela Talley, President
